

RaYBaSH's Torah Thoughts for Kids
Parashah # 18 Mishpatim: "Judgments"
Shemot/Exodus 21:1-24:18
By Yehudah ben Shomeyr

Many times, not always you have the feeling of knowing when you are being treated unfairly.

In the Torah we learn the Laws of treating other people who work for us fairly, if not you will be punished by God and God will give justice to those who have been treated unfairly.

In our Haftarah and Brit Chadasha portions we are given examples of where men try to cheat and get around God's Torah by making up their own rules so as to be able to still treat others badly.

It all goes back to the Golden Rule, treating others the way you would want to be treated.

Shabbat Shalom and Shavuah Tov!

-- Yehudah ben Shomeyr

MEMORY VERSE:

- Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared. – Exd. 23:20