Parashah #3: Lech Lecha: "Go Out"

B'reshit (Genesis): 12:1-17:27

By: Yehudah ben Shomeyr

Have you ever made a deal or a covenant with someone? Have you ever promised someone you'll be like blood brothers or BBF's? Have you ever promised someone you will always be there anytime they need you? Has anyone ever made promises like that to you? Have you ever broken those promises or have they?

Well, in this week's Torah portion we find God making a promise, a Covenant with Abraham. God promises He will always be there to love and protect Abraham and all his descendants forever and all we have to do is the best of our ability follow His Torah. Even though God will NEVER break His promise to us, even though we will and a lot of times without meaning it. But as long as we see our mistakes and ask God to forgive us and do our best not to mess up in the same way next time, God will forgive us and see us through. God knows we can't keep the Covenant perfectly like He can. That is why Yeshua came and makes up for whatever we lack, He comes through for us before God when we end up failing.

MEMORY VERSES:

- Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee: And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed. – Gen. 12:1-3
