

“Today is forty-three days which are six weeks and one day of the Omer.”

- Theme of the Week: Malchut - Majesty
- Theme of the Day: Chesed – Loving-kindness
- Overall Theme: The Loving-kindness of His Majesty
- Psalm 106

Oft times royalty has a professional distance which can be construed as, or turned into aloofness and we sometimes can't fathom that majesty can have and should have an element of Loving-kindness to it. But King ADONAI, our King is a Majestic King who is Lovingly Kind.

Psalm 106:1-5 Praise ye the LORD. O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can shew forth all his praise? Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at all times. Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation; That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance.

The Psalm of the day, these verses speak of a Loving King who cares for and is intimately involved with His people. He is the model for any world or religious leader.

“Abba ADONAI God, I praise and thank You because You are a Holy, Benevolent, Loving King who cares and sacrifices for His people. I am so undeserving of this. Thank You! In the Name of Messiah Yeshua, Ameyn.”
